SECRET OF THE SANDS

STANDING AT OPEN WINDOWS

I don't believe that I've ever been understood
I don't believe to find the light
I'm the shade of a man, so tall I stood
I'm too weak to stand up and fight

I ain't able to melt the snow in me
I've been cursed right from the start
Invisible arms are chasing me
Will they ever catch my heart?

I have lost my way
The final curtain falls
Cold shivers in the dark
I'm standing at open windows

I'm running into the temple of doom
There's only wreckage in my mind
There is no one around to arrest my soul
I feel the world is dehumanized

I have lost my way
The final curtain falls
Cold shivers in the dark
I'm standing at open windows
... feeling the draft on my skin...
