

EXHAUST

RIDE ON FROZEN GROUND

VIKINGS NIGHT

The Sun is far away and darkness all around
The stars look down on him
He is still a long way away...

Eternal ice is waiting for discovery
Green lights are shimmering, just turn around
They're everywhere to see...

The leader rests his hand on the dragon's head
The course is turning north, the longboats move beyond the horizon
The viking stands in front, pointing to the shore
The norsemen take their axes, ready to explore the north

Watch out! Stand back! This is a warning
Watch out! Stand down! Here come the Vikings
We are the Vikings!
We never stop the fight until the dawning
We are the Vikings!
You better run and hide, this is a warning
They bring the Vikings Night

The dragonboats are landing, men stepping ashore
Red light is glowing from the dawning of the Sun
A hundred eyes are watching the setup of the camp
If they're not coming to surrender they won't survive the night

Watch out! Stand back! This is a warning
Watch out! Stand down! Here come the Vikings
We are the Vikings!
We never stop the fight until the dawning
We are the Vikings!
You better run and hide, this is a warning
They bring the Vikings Night
